Dear Parishioner,

During the weekend of October 23 and 24, 2005, our parish held a Ministry Fair in which many parish ministries told of their effort to build up the Body of Christ. Through our Ministry Fair, we identified what stewardship and ministry are; we displayed how we daily are Christian stewards; we acquainted Saint Rose parishioners with the manifold ways we help each other and our neighbors, as well as Peruvians who come to the medical clinic in Villa el Salvador (Lima) and live in the barrios near the clinic; we welcomed new, active members to our various lay ministries. The ministry representatives' enthusiasm and the new volunteers' readiness to discover and celebrate Christ far exceeded our expectations.

Stewardship – our Christian use of time, talent, and treasure – is life giving. Open to the Holy Spirit's guidance in our use of our time, talent, and treasure, we strengthen our faith and support and sustain our faith community. Through active participation in parish ministries, we freely lend a helping hand, offering our time and our talent, to build up within and extend beyond our parish Christ's presence in our world. Through the generous gift of our treasure, we provide the financial resources that make certain our ministries and those ministries beyond our parish – diocesan and world wide – are vibrantly fruitful.

Ministry, simply put, is serving God's will. Ordained ministers and lay ministers share and express God's love by celebrating the liturgy together at Mass, by being active in parish committees, and by bringing Christ's gospel to others. The Holy Spirit has blessed every parishioner with special talents for a ministry. As we identify and develop these talents, we make God's work our own and use these talents to become ministers. What we do becomes our Christian life mission. So a glorious trinity takes shape: God, the minister, those with whom we share our ministry. God announces his good word to us and bestows his blessings upon us. We ministers respond to God's word and use the Holy Spirit's given talents. We reach out and touch the lives of others, building up the life of our parish community with Christ's life. Those with whom we share our use of the Holy Spirit's gifts have their faith with God renewed and they help us renew God's creation.

We hope to involve every parishioner's help in making Christ present to those who call Saint Rose of Lima Parish their friend and their home.

Nearly countless are the ways in which every one of us can become involved in the Christian use of our time and talent. The Ministry and the Time and Talent Selection Forms allows for households of up to ten individuals to show their present and future participation in a parish ministry. If you would need additional forms, please do not hesitate to take them or to ask our parish office to send them to you. The last column shows a completed example. On the Ministry Selection Form, please use an "M" if you are a current member and actively participate in the listed ministry; place an "X" if you would like to participate in the listed ministry. On the Time and Talent Form, please use a "T" if you have the skill shown; place an "X" if you would be interested in learning more about the skill shown. In no way does your listing of your various talents commits you to a parish ministry. We wish to have a working list of parishioners so that should we need persons with a skill you possess or should want to offer a presentation (such as babysitting classes, baking, or support groups) we could call upon you to help or attend. Please, use page ten to include any notes or comments.

On page nine of the Ministry and the Time and Talent Selection Form is a series of questions that ask how much time and commitment you may be willing to make. Your response will further help us in knowing whom we might gear toward a specific task. Thank you for taking the time to complete our parishioner information forms.

Sincerely in Christ,
Father Crookston, Pastor
