FROM THE PASTOR

WELCOME, YULE! We warmly welcome all who have come this Christmas Day to celebrate the glorious feast of the Messiah's birth. We welcome the stranger, the traveler and guest! We welcome our students home from college for a good winter's rest! We welcome parishioners who moved far away but join us today as old friends! We welcome all who have not been active of late in their Catholic faith. We hope they will find new hope and inspiration this Christmas to come back again and again! We welcome our faithful parishioners, loyal and true; may the Lord bless you for all you do! Welcome to all! May our gathering this Christmas gladden our hearts and deepen our bonds. We are after all one People of God redeemed by the Light. May we walk by the Light and live by the Light -- together in love.

CATHOLICS, COME HOME Christmas is a special time when family and friends think about getting back to church. Those who want to return have issues and questions. Our Catholics, Come Home Team invites those who know someone who wants to return to the church to attend an informative "Friends and Family" meeting scheduled January 12, 7 P.M. The sessions for the returning Catholics are 7:00 P.M. January 26 and February 12. All the sessions will gather in the church foyer. Call the rectory (944-8509) for more information.

Liturgical Reflection...

Today the world celebrated the presence of the Word of God in our midst. In the course of time, when all was ready, God sent us his only Son. Christmas is the memorial of the birth of Jesus Christ. The dark night is shattered with the blazing Light who is the Son of God. Born in humble surroundings, this Infant is the Savior of all peoples. The shepherds, the angels, Joseph, and the child's mother are in awe before Him. There is a holy stillness in the stable at Bethlehem. Peace Himself has visited the earth. Share Christmas joy with all you meet this day.

PRAYER CHAIN – If you would like Our Prayer Chain to pray for your intentions, please call Bernice Shoenfelt at 942-5659.

IN DEFENSE OF LIFE”

A Christmas reflection: “The Church knows how to celebrate; the world has forgotten. The Church knows how to receive and give life and love. But the world has become too preoccupied with usefulness, efficiency and productivity.” (Father Frank Pavone, 3/25/05). In this season of life and love, let us rejoice and be eternally grateful that we have been give such extravagant gifts.

PRAYER CORNER

A CHRISTMAS PRAYER

Loving Father, help us to remember the birth of Jesus, That we may share in the song of the angels, The gladness of the shepherds, And worship of the wise men Close the door of hate and open the door of love all over the world

Let kindness come with every gift and good desires with every greeting.

Deliver us from evil by the blessing which Christ brings, And teach us to be merry with clear hearts. Amen

A PRAYER FOR THOSE WHO MUST WORK ON CHRISTMAS

Lord, as I spend today going about my work, help me to put aside my bitterness that I'm not celebrating at home with loved ones. I ask You, loving Father, to give me a special sense of your presence as I meet people, that I may shed on them the light of the Bethlehem Star, the Spirit of Christmas. Amen.

Families and the Gospel

December 25

Ju 1:1-18

At Christmas we celebrate God becoming human and dwelling among us. Where is Christ being born in your family? Does it take a band of angels to make us aware of the spark of the divine in each other? Do we see each other as participating in God's life? We are a “sign” to each other of God's presence with us every day. This is “good news of great joy.”

Protecting God's Children- All schools and religious education programs of the diocese are required to provide the instructional sessions for children and youth. The Diocese has chosen the Teaching Touching Safety Program to accomplish this. If a parent or guardian refuses to allow their child to be instructed, they must complete a written statement of that fact. The school or religious education program will provide instructional materials to those parents who refuse, with the hope that they will instruct their own child.

Dear Watcher for Christ's Birth Who Prays Persons to Return to the Catholic Faith,

We are aware of nine reasons that may have caused a Catholic friend, neighbor, or family member to become inactive. Our hope is to stimulate your concern and creativity, and to persuade you to approach your friends and family members who are not practicing their faith. Sometimes the inactive Catholic voices one of these reasons to learn what you as an active Catholic knows about how to return to the church.

We have planned an information session for friends and family of inactive Catholics. This information session will happen early in the New Year (January 12, 7:00 P.M.). Members of our Catholics, Come Home Team will outline a helpful approach to your conversation with those we pray will one day return. Later in January the team will hold the first of two gatherings for returning Catholics (January 26, 7:00 P.M. and February 12, 1:30 P.M.). We invite you to accompany a friend or family member who is interested in coming home to an active, full practice of the faith.

The nine frequently given reasons follow – you can probably tell us of other factors:

- Reason 1: Some did not experience the power or presence of God in Catholicism or in the Catholic community of which they were a part.
- Reason 2: Some did not experience warm, personal, caring relationships in their encounters with Catholics. To them the people seemed cold, the services boring.
- Reason 3: Others did experience the complex religious system that seemed to lack relatedness to their lives and, for many, a lack of ministers appreciating their language and culture.
- Reason 4: Some were hurt in some way by Catholics - clergy or laity - and have not been reconciled.
- Reason 5: Some are in conflict with the teachings of the church on . . . matters of faith and morality.
- Reason 6: Others never knew their faith well and were ignorant of basics. They were easily misled in their lack of understanding, exploited by those who attack Catholic beliefs and practices for their own purposes.
- Reason 7: Some have been kept from full communion with the church because of a marriage outside the church.
- Reason 8: A significant number of the inactive simply got lazy and stopped going. They may have gotten busy with their jobs and families, and through their own fault did not find the time. In a recent survey of young-adult Catholics published in America Magazine, 35 percent of the inactive simply got too busy and were lazy and did not find the time to be involved.
- Reason 9: Others moved to new locations and never got around to finding a church in their new city or neighborhood. The America survey noted that 19 percent of the inactive young adults fell into this category.

A Special Word to Parents of Inactive Catholics

We know how painful it can be for you when your children stop practicing their faith. You wonder where you went wrong, what you failed to emphasize, what you failed to explain. Instead of dwelling on what went wrong, take that energy and apply it to your prayer life.

Often your adult child's inactive faith can be a difficult subject for you to broach. Defensive reactions can be quick. You may have a tendency to lecture or to nag. Often the issue of Catholic practice may be tied up with delicate emotional issues between you and your children.

Still, never give up. Pray for your inactive children and model more vibrantly your own Catholic faith for them. There can be opportunities for you to talk empathetically with your children about the benefits of returning to the church. It requires a great deal of emotional calm, a supernatural spirit, and an intuitive sense of diplomacy and timing!

Remember St. Monica, who never gave up on St. Augustine. She prayed for Augustine for more than thirty years. During this period he restlessly tried several intellectual philosophies and engaged in self-centered, manipulative relationships. How painful it must have been for Monica to watch her talented son walk this self-destructive path.

It was through Monica's prayer that Augustine came home. We lift up our sons and daughters to the intercession of St. Monica and St. Augustine. We never give up on them.

Pray and Take Action

We encourage you to continue with your own reflection. Think of your friends, your family, those in your sphere of influence in Saint Rose Parish and elsewhere.

Think about how you can tactfully speak with them and invite them back to the church. We will be praying for your efforts and will look forward to hearing about your experiences and benefiting from your own insights.

We further pray that this letter has renewed your heart's and imagination's efforts to open pathways of return for inactive Catholics' friends and family. May Christ's favor come to rest abundantly upon you and you loved ones this Christmas season.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. James F. Crookston

Fr. Carl A. Spishak

Returning Catholic Sessions

January 26, 7:00 P.M. and February 12, 1:30 P.M.

Blessing for the Family:

Let us pray for these parents and their children,
and ask God to give them his choicest blessings:

All pause for a moment of silent prayer.

Loving, Father,
you have shown us your great love
by sending your Son to be one of us.
Look with love upon these parents and their children,
bless them with your gifts and graces,
and help them to follow the call of your Holy Spirit.

Father,
we ask this grace
in the name of Jesus our Lord.

(All Answer): Amen.

Prayer for the End of the Year:

All praise and glory are yours,
Father of Heaven and earth, Lord of all ages:
you have brought us to the end
of another year in your service.
We praise you for the gifts you have given us,
and for the ways we have been led to use them
for your people and for your world.

Forgive us, Father, for our failures this year;
for neglecting your work,
for failing to listen to your Spirit,
for refusing to love you in others.

As we begin a new year in your service,
let your Son be our leader and your Spirit our guide,
your work a lamp for our feet
and strength for our heart.
Help us to work for your honor and glo
and for the salvation of all your people.

Praise and honor and glory are yours, Father,
through your Son, our Lord and brother,
in the love and unity of your Holy Spirit
now and evermore.

(All answer): Amen.

Dearest Lord, teach me to be generous: teach me to serve
You as You deserve: to give and not to count the cost,
To fight and not to heed the wounds,
To toil and not to seek for rest,
To labor and not to ask for reward
save that of knowing I am doing Your will. St. Ignatius Loyola
