FROM THE PASTOR

BLESSING ON FATHER'S DAY God our Father, in your wisdom and love you made all things. Bless our fathers, that they may be strengthened as Christian fathers. Let the example of their faith and love shine forth. Grant that their sons and daughters may honor them always with a spirit of profound respect.

CATHOLIC APPEAL-An Encouraging Beginning:

225 families have pledged a total of $38,167 to the 2006 Annual Catholic Appeal. Your generosity is a splendid outpouring! Thank you to everyone who has so generously responded. All who have yet to pledge your support, please do so now. The participation of 25% of our households has put us at 75% of the diocesan goal of $51,521. Fr. Spishak and I hope that every parishioner supports this year's appeal. With everyone pulling together we can both meet our assigned goal and gather sufficient funds to replace a fifteen-year-old air condenser in our social hall. The replacement unit is cooling those who help our school by coming to bingo.

This week, appeal helpers will give a friendly reminder to parishioners who have yet to make a gift decision. Please lighten their work by pledging now. We appreciate every parishioner's gift. Please give freely and generously as your means permit. First time participants to the Appeal may choose a gift of $100 or you may want to match last year's average Saint Rose gift of $184. Thank you for your prayers and your generous support for the Annual Catholic Appeal and the replacement of the air condenser.

THE BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

MISSION CO-OP APPEAL

Today we welcome Father Paul Zilonka, C.P., a representative of Passionist Overseas Missions to our Parish. Father Paul's visits in conjunction with our participation in the annual Mission Cooperative Program for the Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown.

Passionist Missionaries have served in mission territories throughout the world for many years. Today Passionist Priests and Brothers are ministering to people in Haiti; the Caribbean; Africa; Jamaica, West Indies; Honduras and the Philippines. Most Missions offer a four-fold program of education, health economic development and community organization to the people they serve. They work to Break the Cycle of Poverty, Illness and Educational Deprivation and substitute a willingness to learn and progress. You can assist them in the endeavors. Kindly give your attention to Father Paul's important appeal and please be as generous as your circumstances allow.

“IN DEFENSE OF LIFE”

“Science, quite apart from...religion, affirms dogmatically that human embryos are human beings, rather than zebra or cow beings. Science, quite apart from religious dogma, affirms dogmatically that every person walking around in the world was once an embryo.” Rev. Tadeusz Pacholczyk, Ph.D., The Southern Cross, 2/9/06

PRAYER CORNER

Dear God our Heavenly Father, today our thoughts are turned toward our earthly fathers.

For the Fathers who have increased the joy in our lives:

We give You thanks.

For the Fathers who are greatly missed, may we take the time to gratefully recall all that they have give us, and

We give You thanks.

For those who are facing the imminent loss of their Fathers, may they find comfort in the love that their fathers have given them.

We give You thanks O God for our father.

What a blessing our father has been. Amen.

LITURGICAL REFLECTION...The Cathedral Church of the Diocese bears the title BLESSED SACRAMENT. This year this magnificent structure celebrates seventy-five years. On September 7, 1931, Bishop John McCort invited Cardinal Dennis Dougherty of Philadelphia to dedicate the new Cathedral of the Altoona Diocese. The cornerstone of the Cathedral had been blessed by Bishop McCort in 1926 on the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Diocese. For seventy-five years the Diocese has been under the protection and strength of the great Sacrament. The Body and Blood of Christ is indeed the central Sacrament of our Catholic lives and the sustenance for the journey of life.

June 24- Birth of St. John the Baptist A Prayer for Cousins

By Mary Lynn Hendrickson

Thank you, God, for cousins.

They're often the very first friends we make.

Like Jesus and John the Baptist, we take the things we have in common (like games and good hiding places at Grandma's) and turn them into the activities we love.

Like a glove, our family traits fit our shared interests.
And yet we test out different ways to be. With cousins, we learn to encourage and disagree.

We learn to stick up for one another, too.

Lord, it's you who dreamt up these good companions, a blend of family and friend. Like the ways that you watch over us, may cousin companionship never end.

A FATHER'S ADVICE TO HIS SON

When Eric was getting ready to return to college after a semester break, his Dad gave him some sheets of paper containing handwritten words of wisdom from a father to his son.

1. Dwell on the future, not the past. What's done is done, the future is the only thing you can have an impact on.
2. Ask God for forgiveness and move on. God always forgives the faithful.
3. Don't feel as though you must bare your soul to others. This puts a burden on them. Go on a "need to know" basis.
4. This too will pass, if you want it to. Mature, healthy relationships combat the desire to falter
5. Take solace from your relationship with God and those you love.
6. Focus on the positive and use it. Reflect on your gains and build on your strengths. Let go of your failures.
7. Nobody is perfect, not even you (or me). There will always be failing and temptations. That is what the devil does for a living!
8. Count your blessings, nurture your faith. Thank God everyday for who you are. Move on through this earthly existence as best you can.
9. Enjoy life! Leave a legacy for your children to follow. That's all we really can do.
10. I love you.
P.S. Call you mother.

Happy Father's Day!
