FROM THE PASTOR

BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

During November we will remember all your named deceased family and friends in our parish Book of Remembrance. Please use the All Souls envelope to list your beloved ones now "resting in the Lord."

CATHOLIC YOUTH AND THEIR PARENTS Conclusions and Recommendations

1) Religion is a significant presence in the lives of Catholic young people and many express this importance through participating in Catholic liturgical and spiritual practices. Recommendation: Catholic faith communities must provide a comprehensive ministry to, with, for, and by young people, "drawing young people into responsible participation in the life, work, and mission of the faith community" (Renewing The Vision 11).

2) Catholic young people are incredibly inarticulate about their faith, unable to adequately express what they believe, including the basic teachings of Catholicism. Recommendation: Our pastoral ministry with young people in parish and school settings requires a comprehensive vision for adolescent catechesis; a practical blueprint for developing an effective catechetical program with varied formats, settings, and approaches; and opportunities for faith formation and developing spiritual practices.

3) Young people faithfully "mirror" the religious life of their parents and serve as a "barometer" of the larger faith community." Recommendation: Parish faith communities need an intentional outreach to families emphasizing a ministry of welcome, connecting families with the life of the faith community, and renewing our efforts at adult catechesis.

TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

4) Moral Therapeutic Deism, a religious "Whatever-ism," serves as a "default position" for adolescent religiosity when religious communities' engagement and education of youth is weak.

Recommendation: Catholic faith communities and pastoral ministers must renew our commitment to a "new evangelization" that proclaims the challenges and life-changing Good News of Jesus Christ, and that emphasizes worship, service and justice, and participation in a faith community.

5) The Catholic Church seems to lack an institutional commitment to youth evangelization and formation at the parish and diocesan level. Recommendation: Because congregations in which youth ministry is a priority produce young people who are engaged in their faith, parishes need to provide the resources, trained personnel, and financial support to implement the Catholic Church's Vision of Youth Ministry. "IN DEFENSE OF LIFE"

Commenting on the political poison unleashed by Roe v. Wade, abortion-supporting columnist Charles Krauthammer notes that this decision disenfranchised instantly and without recourse an enormous part of the American population, preventing the proper political settlement of the issue by the people and their representatives. Roe v. Wade makes the U.S. the only Western nation to have legalized abortion by judicial fiat rather than by the popular will expressed democratically. National Right to Life News, 11/05)

FAMILIES AND THE GOSPEL

October 19

Mt 22:15-21

Jesus was exasperated when he scolded: “Why do you put me to the test?” It is natural for children to test parents; this is how they learn and how we teach limits, rules and values. Be like Jesus in today's gospel; he was firm, honest and direct. The phrase in today's gospel is famous: “Pay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God.” Taxes insure the government gets its share of our families resources, but what about our debts to God. How much time does your family give to God in conversation (prayer) or in service to our fellow humans who are in need?
