Deacon Jim's "A Moment with Our Lady"

Doesn't May represent, at least in our countries in the Northern Hemisphere, the smile of nature after a harsh winter? If May gradually became "the" month of Mary, it is because of its flowers. Men like the Dominican Henry Suso or Saint Philip Neri invited children to bring bouquets of flowers to the Virgin in May.

Isn't Mary the "Mystical Rose," the flower that announces the fruit who is Jesus himself? Originally a headdress of plaited flowers, the word "rosary" is self-explanatory. In Lourdes, Our Lady appeared with a golden rose on each foot.

By a happy modification of the liturgical calendar, the month of Mary ends with the feast of the Visitation. This feast is the celebration par excellence of evangelization, of "Mary the Church" rushing to visit her cousin who was expecting John the Baptist.

The Virgin Mary should not be separated from Saint Joseph. So, we begin the joyous month with the feast of Joseph the Worker. If anyone on earth enjoyed Mary's smile, it must have been him!

LYME DISEASE MEETING

The Altoona Area Lyme Disease Support Group will meet on Thursday, May 10, 2018 at 6:30 p.m. in the Saint Rose of Lima Church Social Hall. The group meets on the 2nd Thursday of each month and is the Altoona Region of the PA Lyme Resource Network. www.palyme.org. All are welcome. For more info, call Amber Altiero at 814-934-7403

LITURGICAL REFLECTION...

The Lord gives us the great commandment: love one another as I love you. We are commanded to love one another. When we die, the judgment will take into account the degree to which we loved our brothers and sisters. At the Final Commendation, we give thanks for the many blessings God bestowed on the deceased. The blessings of living in community and loving one another as Christ commanded. At the Committal, we acknowledge that faith in God's love united the deceased to the community of believers, calling on God's mercy and love to welcome our brother or sister into the kingdom. Order of Christian Funerals, 1998/1989, Numbers 175-222.

FAMILIES AND THE GOSPEL

May 6

John 15:9-17

Today's gospel challenges us to "love one another as I have loved you." Jesus is our model and he asks us to "lay down our life" (our time, attention, opinions and needs) for each other.

This is the sacrament of the family, when God is made visible in our sacrificial love for one another.
