ALL SAINTS

This Thursday, November 1, is the Solemnity of All Saints. It is a Holy Day of Obligation in the United States. Catholic faith professes a belief in the great company of the holy women, men and children who have preceded us. We seek their intercession for us to Jesus Christ who sits in glory. We remember the great saints of our faith; and we remember the lesser known saints who lived ordinary lives of holiness and have reached their eternal reward. We gather to give God praise and thanks with all the saints in glory.

Masses will be on Wednesday, October 31st at 7:00 p.m. and Thursday, November 1st 7:00 a.m. 8:30 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. Remember on Friday, November 2, the Church commemorates All Souls Day.

Deacon Jim's "A Moment with Our Lady"

If we want to remain impassive about the future, we would have to plug our ears and close our eyes.

We would need to close our eyes to the crimes that multiply around us...plug our ears to the warnings so often repeated by Our Lord and the Blessed Virgin—warnings that are in fact very merciful since they not only disclose the punishments that threaten us, but also give us the means or tell us the way to prevent them:

Convert, do penance, consecrate ourselves to the Immaculate Heart of Mary, and say the Rosary. Yes, the Rosary is the ultimate means that will give us the grace to use all the others.

His Excellency Bishop Routhier, Coadjutor Bishop of Grouard, Canada.

St. Rose of Lima's St. Vincent de Paul Conference Weekly Reflection for October 28-Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time:

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus asks Bartimaeus: "What do you want me to do for you?" And he answers, "Master, I want to see." Let us ask Jesus for the grace to "see" our brothers and sisters who are poor and lonely.

This month, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to bring God's love and mercy to numerous families, providing food, as well as support for utility, rent, and other bills. God Bless You!
